

VOLVO OCEAN RACE

ROUND THE WORLD 2008 – 2009

Notice of Race

Amendment No1

(A) Part 2, 2.1 THE RACE

Remove

- (d) Leg 4: India to Indonesia, an approximate distance of 2000 n.m., leaving the island of Palau Weh, Indonesia, which will be a scoring waypoint to starboard and starting 3 January 2009

Leg 5: Indonesia to China (port 1), an approximate distance of 2,200 n.m. and starting 24 January 2009.

Replace with

- (d) Leg 4: India to South East Asia, an approximate distance of 2000 n.m., leaving the island of Palau Weh, Indonesia, which will be a scoring waypoint to starboard and starting 3 January 2009

Leg 5: South East Asia to China (port 1), an approximate distance of 2,200 n.m. and starting 24 January 2009.

(B) Part 2, 2.1 THE RACE

Remove

- (d) Leg 8: Brasil to the North East United States, an approximate distance of 4800 n.m. leaving the Archipelago of Fernando de Noronha to port, which shall be a scoring waypoint and starting 18 March 2009.

Replace with

- (d) Leg 8: Brasil to the North East United States, an approximate distance of 4800 n.m. leaving the Archipelago of Fernando de Noronha to port, which shall be a scoring waypoint and starting 18 April 2009.

(C) Part 2, 2.1 THE RACE

Remove

- (f) In Port Races will be conducted in Alicante, the Middle East, Indonesia, China (port 2), Brasil, North East United States, Western Europe and Sweden. Each In Port Race shall be approximately two hours in length.

Replace with

- (f) In Port Races will be conducted in Alicante, the Middle East, South East Asia, China (port 2), Brasil, North East United States, Western Europe and Sweden. Each In Port Race shall be approximately two hours in length.

Andy Hindley
Racing Director
For and on behalf of the Organising Authority

4 January 2007